(1400 HOURS LOCAL)

This is a joint ConGen Jerusalem/Embassy Tel Aviv cable.

11. (SBU) Summary: A total of 11 Palestinians were killed and another 49 were wounded in clashes that erupted during an IDF incursion into the Khan Yunis December 17-18 intended to stop mortar and rocket fire on Israeli and Israeli settler towns. Some 127 families (600 people) fled their homes during the IDF operation and were accommodated in two UNRWA schools in the area. When the IDF withdrew at 2200 hours December 18, a total of 44 housing units (housing 57 families or 308 people) had been destroyed, and another three (accommodating 25 people) had been heavily damaged. The families housed in the UNRWA school returned to their homes on December 19, after the IDF withdrawal. Five Palestinians reportedly killed December 17 in the collapse of a weapons smuggling tunnel along the Egyptian-Rafah border were rescued alive after having been trapped for more than 12 hours. Palestinian militants fired a total of 13 Qassam rockets at Israeli and Israeli settler towns and villages December 17-19. Two, possibly three, Israelis were lightly wounded by the rockets. In the West Bank, a total of six Palestinians were injured, one of them seriously, during three separate clashes between Palestinians and IDF soldiers December 19 in Beituniya, near Ramallah, Tulkarem, and Halhul, near Hebron. The GOI December 19 approved the release of 170 Palestinian prisoners in accordance with an agreement made between Egypt and Israel for the release of Azzam Azzam. End Summary.

12. (SBU) ATTACKS:

-- Deaths: Nil.

-- Injuries: Three Palestinians were injured during clashes with the IDF December 19 in Beituniya near Ramallah.

-- Injuries: Two Palestinians were wounded December 19 in clashes with the IDF in Tulkarem.

-- Injury: Two Palestinians December 19 stabbed and moderately wounded an Israeli in the Abu Tur neighborhood of Jerusalem. The circumstances of the incident are unclear.

-- Injury: A Palestinian was seriously wounded during clashes with the IDF December 19 in the village of Halhul north of Hebron.

13. (SBU) ARRESTS/SECURITY:

-- Curfew/Arrests: The IDF December 18 imposed a curfew on Qalqiliya and conducted searches in the city. The IDF arrested at least nine Palestinians during the operation.

-- Arrests: The IDF December 18 arrested 11 Palestinians in Hebron, Bethlehem, and Tulkarem. Palestinians fired shots at IDF soldiers operating in Tulkarem. There were no injuries reported from this incident.

-- Shooting: Palestinian gunmen December 18 fired on IDF soldiers operating in the Askar refugee camp near Nablus. There were no injuries reported in this incident.

-- Arrests: The IDF arrested 14 Palestinians during operations overnight December 19-20 in several localities in the West Bank, including seven arrests in the Balata refugee camp in Nablus.

-- The Israeli Border police December 20 arrested a Palestinian in possession of a knife at the Kalandia checkpoint north of Jerusalem who apparently intended to attack the Israeli border guards.

14. (SBU) DEMOLITIONS:

-- The IDF entered December 20 the village of Arraba near Jenin and blew up the homes of PIJ and al-Aqsa Martyrs, Brigades activists who are currently in Israeli custody.

15. (SBU) PALESTINIAN PRISONERS:

-- An Israeli ministerial committee headed by Prime Minister Sharon approved December 19 the release of 170 Palestinian prisoners in accordance with an agreement made between Egypt and Israel for the release of Azzam Azzam. According to press reports, 120 Fatah activists will be released along with 50 Palestinians arrested inside Israel without legal entry permits. Palestinian Authority (PA) officials criticized the prisoner release as insufficient, adding that the decision to release prisoners was not coordinated with the PA and that priority should be given to those prisoners serving lengthy sentences.

16. (SBU) POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS:

-- Hamas marked the 17th anniversary of the founding of the movement with a march December 18 through the West Bank city of Nablus. A similar march took place in Tulkarem

-- The Palestinian Authority (PA) will hold a memorial service December 21 for Yasir Arafat in Ramallah. Senior Arab officials including Egyptian Intelligence Director Omar Sulayman and the Jordanian Minister of Interior are expected to attend the observance marking the end of the 40-day mourning period since the death of Arafat.

-- Following a brief stopover in Amman for meetings with Jordanian officials, Prime Minister Abu Ala,a and PLO chief Abu Mazen are expected December 20 to arrive in Ramallah.
